Out Again

Ambulance service in Plano is now dependent on McKinney's generosity in loaning another vehicle. Two Ambulance was involved in a major accident Monday afternoon and One Ambulance broke down later that evening. Attendant Joe Johnson and the driver of a 1977 Chevrolet, George Raymond Hancock of 3601 Bonnie Brook, sustained minor injuries. Rick Thomas who was driving the ambulance escaped injury. The crash, the second involving a city ambulance in less than three weeks, occurred at 3:39 p.m. in the intersection of Custer Rd. and Park Blvd. The police officer investigating the accident said the ambulance had lights and siren on. There is no word yet how long the ambulances will be out of service. In the interim, Two Booster will respond to urgent ambulance calls on the westside to begin treatment until McKinney's ambulance can arrive from Central Station. (Staff photo).

Agreement Insures Better Roadways

BY PAM TROBOY

Two major thoroughfares in east Plano will soon be built by a developer under an agreement approved Monday night by the City Council.

Park Blvd. will be completed between North Central Expressway and Los Robles Dr. and Shiloh Rd. will be extended from Park Blvd. south to its present terminus, just north of Blossom Dr.

General Portland Land Development Co. will prepare all construction plans, submit them for review by the city, prepare a map and field notes of necessary right-of-way, negotiate for that right-of-way, receive bids for the improvements and submit them to the city for review, prepare an assessment roll, negotiate the execution of voluntary assessment liens and award bids and temporarily finance the total cost of all improvements.

In return, the city will review the plans and reimburse General Portland for normal engineering costs within 18 months or final acceptance and reimburse the company for the oversize portion of the improvements within 18 months of final acceptance of the roadways.

Not included in the contract, but requested by Bob Collins, is preservation of a large tree near Shiloh Rd. Collins said the tree is about four or five feet in diameter and should be saved if possible.

Haggard Annexation

In other action, the council agreed to call a public hearing to consider the annexation of land owned by W. O. Haggard and lying north of Park Blvd., between Custer and Alma Rds.

The intent of Collins who made the motion was to also consider the annexation of Emajean Haggard Hall property which is located adjacent to the Haggard tract.

Collins said the property should be annexed because a 1972 contract between the city, Haggard and Hall had been broken. In the agreement, the property owners gave the city a sewer easement in return for a promise of no annexation while the property retained agricultural usage and no portion was sold.

Johnny Hall told the council that he considers the contract still binding because his wife has not sold any of the property in question.

Mayor Norman Whitsitt insisted that although there is only one agreement, the council at the time considered the property to be in two ownerships. Collins conceded this argument and then motioned to consider annexing the Haggard tract.

Rodney Haggard asked the council to consider that although a small portion of land had been sold, it was necessary for orderly development since his father was being forced to pay for street and bridge improvements. He also noted that the easement does not cross any portion of the land which has been sold.

No Retail

In the only disputed action of the evening, the council agreed to annex and zone 118 acres on the southwest corner of Alma and Carpenter Rds.

Cambridge Companies had requested 10 acres of retail and 108 acres of SF-4A residential, but council members refused to allow any retail in the fear that the remaining corners of the intersection would also be brought in for retail development.

Louise Sherrill opposed the decision without any retail for what she and the developer described as a "land-locked population." Cambridge maintains that it will be financially impractical to provide access to North Central Expressway across the Russell Creek Basin.

The property will be developed as 15 percent SF-4A, 55 percent SF-3 and 30 percent SF-2. The percentages conform to a nearby Fox & Jacobs addition. The land study of the tract was also approved.

Other zoning cases approved included a specific use permit for an auto sales lot at 1304 Avenue K, Agriculture zoning on 1.38 acres for Texas Power & Light, Agriculture zoning on 35 acres on the southwest corner of Parker Rd. and Rowlett Creek for a stable and Planned Development-Retail zoning on 21.8 acres on the northeast corner of FM 544 and SH 289.

Bellevue Alley

The council also approved heating and air conditioning shops in Retail districts with a specific use permit and agreed to construct an alley in the Bellevue addition at a cost of $10,558. The costs will be shared by abutting

Pressure Building on House

Budget Deadlines Forcing Legislature to Compromise

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — Texas legislators, pressed by anxious school districts facing budget deadlines, predicted today both Houses may be ready to vote on proposed increases in public school financing by Wednesday.

The 41-day recess failed to resolve the basic disputes about how the state funds should be distributed among the state's 1,100 school districts, but the pressure of an upcoming school year apparently has made the lawmakers more willing to negotiate.

"I'm willing to compromise," said Rep. Ron Coleman, D-El Paso, the House sponsor of a $960 million plan that would do more than any proposal being considered to equalize funding of poor and rich school districts.

House leaders, who back a more conservative $921 million bill designed to relieve tax burdens on local school districts, stalled committee action to consider an amendment by a Dallas legislator which would give poor districts the greatest increase in the additional funding.

Leaders of both Houses predicted school finance bills would be out of committee today, and ready for floor action on Wednesday.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe opened the 30-day special session Monday with a proposal for a $931 million program that would funnel the most money — $367 million — toward lowering the amount of taxes local districts have to raise to finance school operations.

Senators began deliberations instead on a $938 million plan that gives property tax relief almost equal billing with aid to poor districts.

Coleman's bill, which already faced opposition from rural representatives and some big city schools which fared better under Clayton's plan, received another setback Monday. Texas Education Agency officials said it would cost $960 million — slightly more than the $958.9 million Comptroller Bob Bullock said legislators have to spend.

Briscoe told the legislators Monday he will not add any subjects to the agenda for the 30-day special session until the school finance issue is settled.

"The funding of public education is, in my opinion, the top priority item facing state government today," Sen. A.M. Aikin Jr., D-Paris, said school districts may be unable to open in September unless legislators work out a compromise to increase state spending on education.

"I've got 14 superintendents of school districts that have got to have a bill by Aug. 20. They're pulling their hair out," Aikin said.

Aikin said he opposes some provisions of the Senate bill on property tax assessments but said, "As much as I'm opposed to it I think we've got to get a bill, if we can, to help these school districts out."

Sen. William N. Patman, D-Ganado, complained the Senate bill would triple property tax valuations on agricultural land.

Five Trucks Purchased, County Passes on Two

BY MIKE NEWMAN

Collin County Commissioners voted to accept bids Monday morning for five vehicles for Precinct 2 and 3 and rejected bids for two dump trucks for Precinct 1 on a request from Baily Dickerson, Precinct 1 Commissioner.

The county will purchase two tractor trucks from Friendly Chevrolet for $24,992.96, a pickup truck from Carter Chevrolet for $5,194 and from Friendly a wench truck for $6,969.70 and a tractor truck for $12,562.44. The Precinct 1 trucks will be rebid.

Collin Memorial Hospital administrator Pete Huey presented a comparison study and financial statement on the hospital through June 1977. Commissioners voted to approve the financial statement and accounts payable for Collin Memorial. Patient days spent in the hospital are down 12.3 percent from June 1976 according to Huey.

Approval was given for a right-of-way easement for proposed FM 3364 near Lake Lavon.

After a brief adjournment for an executive session Judge Nathan White Jr. recommended the appointment of Howard McMillan, Pete Platt and Dr. Mike Abernathy to the Child Welfare Board but after a 2-2 tie vote (Dickerson and Chuck Frisk voting for and Bay Sellers and Wallace Webb against), Judge White abstained from voting and the motion died for lack of a majority. The matter was set for consideration at the next regular meeting. In other personnel matters Marshall Anthony Short was appointed Deputy Tax Appraiser and it was announced that court clerk Evelyn Davenport resigned from the Justice of the Peace office in Plano.

Western Data Service was awarded a contract for compiling delinquent tax records.

In other actions the court voted to approve spending for transactions through July 7 in the general accounting funds and road and bridge expenses.

Plane Stolen From Dallas North Airport

A new single-engine aircraft was stolen sometime Thursday night from Dallas North Airport, according to a spokesman for the Collin County Sheriff's Office.

The $78,500 plane was reported missing at 8 a.m. Friday. It had been tied down on an outside lot at 11 p.m. Thursday.

Lovefield Professional Aircraft owns the 1977 Rockwell 112 TC. The low-wing plane has a T-Tail.

Senators Give Honor To McKnight

Plano's Senator Peyton McKnight, praised by his colleagues as a plain-spoken intrepid legislator, has been chosen president pro tempore of the Texas Senate.

The election makes McKnight second in line of succession to the governor.

McKnight, 52, drew praise for his battle against a unitization bill to force pooling of oil recovery operations during his first term in the Senate in 1973.

McKnight was selected for the pro tem position from among a half dozen senators of equal seniority in a private drawing before the special legislative session opened Monday.

Hefty Cut

It was hot, dirty work for the Plano Jaycees Saturday. The civic organization cleaned up the old city cemetery on Avenue H. Mel McIntyre and other members of the group chopped down weeds which have overgrown the tract and collected debris. (Staff photo by Mike Newman).

Cemetery Clean Up

Members of the Plano Jaycees converged recently, on the old city cemetery for a massive clean-up effort. The cemetery had become overgrown and many of the gravesites and headstones were in a state of disrepair. The burial site of many Plano pioneers, the cemetery is located on Avenue H behind Douglass School. With the help of area businesses, the Jaycees were able to restore some of the cemetery's beauty and hopefully part of Plano's heritage. (Staff photos by Mike Newman).

Education Media Show Scheduled

Films and other audio-visual materials distributed on request to Texas public schools by the state's 20 regional education service centers will be available for local review by interested citizens four times each year. This quarterly media "open house" for parents and other interested groups or individuals was announced by Dr. M. L. Brockette, Texas commissioner of education.

The first review will be scheduled on July 22, at each of the 20 centers which are located in major population centers. Other review sessions are set for October 28, January 27, 1978, and April 28, 1978.

"If parents or others are interested in seeing a particular film, we hope they will notify the regional center at least 10 days in advance so the staff can be sure a print will be on hand," Brockette points out.

"However, if the film is not available, the center will re-schedule a review at the earliest date convenient to the parent and the schools."

It is expected that most materials will be on hand at the regional centers for the scheduled citizen showings, Brockette adds.

The education service center for Plano is located at 400 East Spring Valley Rd. in Richardson.

To hold this down...

(your electric bill)

turn this up...

(your thermostat)

Many thousands of Texas Power & Light customers enjoy the comfort of air conditioning in their homes and for most it is the biggest factor in their electric bills during the summer months.

If your home is air-conditioned, you can hold down your electric bill by turning up your thermostat. On whole-house systems, set the thermostat on 78° or higher. On window units, adjust the cooling control to maintain a room temperature in the upper seventies. Turn the air conditioner off if you're going to be away from home for several days or longer.

Check filters every 30 days. Replace dirty disposable-type filters; clean permanent-type by manufacturer's directions. Keep furniture and draperies away from air outlets and returns; clean grills often. Close draperies and blinds to keep out direct sunlight. Keep fireplace damper closed.

Replace worn or missing weatherstripping and caulking around windows and doors. Ask an insulation dealer or a TP&L Service Representative to help you make certain your home is adequately insulated.

Get help for carpet rust
POLLY'S PROBLEM

DEAR POLLY — I would like to know if there is any way to get rust spots out of a carpet.
My Pointer is one to remember for the coming winter. I found that during the cold weather one can keep the toes warmer by cutting the toe part out of an old pair of nylons (about three inches back of the toe part) and then wear these over your regular hose. Also keeping one's closet doors shut to shut out heat is a great help. You will be surprised how cool the closet is when the door is opened. — THELMA.
DEAR THELMA — You failed to say what your carpet is made of so any suggestions must necessarily be very "iffy". Usually rust stains in carpet require the services of a professional. Some homemade "tries" can be hazardous so proceed with great caution and no great hopes.
The America Carpet Institute tells us that in some rare cases a detergent-vinegar-water solution may be successful. One teaspoon of a neutral detergent (such as used for fine fabrics) and one teaspoon of WHITE vinegar in a quart of warm water would be applied with a clean cloth and blotted up with another. This may have to be repeated or can be followed by the use of a dry cleaning fluid if necessary. If possible raise the carpet with the spots and put a towel under it until dry. An electric fan will hasten the drying as one must be careful of soaking the carpet back and then having another problem. — POLLY.

DEAR POLLY — We save our empty potato chip cans and then fill them with popcorn to have when we go to the movies. To keep the cut side of a cake fresh I put a slice of bread against it and hold in place with toothpicks. This bread is not wasted as I later use it to make bread crumbs.
When I have a white spot on a table I rub it away with waxed paper. — DOROTHY.

DEAR POLLY — My thimble used to always be falling off because of my enlarged finger joints but now I place half a two inch strip of adhesive-backed plastic tape with the sticky side against my finger, fold it back and the sticky side left clings to the inside of the thimble. It is comfortable, stays put and the adhesive does no harm to my finger. — G.K.

DEAR POLLY — I cut the rims off of plastic coffee can lids to use as dividers between hamburger patties that I am going to freeze. I can remove just the number of patties needed at one time and also they thaw more quickly. — MRS. C.S.L.

New System Is Set For Aerosol Cans
YONKERS, N.Y. (UPI) — The inventor of the valve for aerosol containers has just introduced a new dispenser system for pressurized products that works with hydrocarbons instead of fluorocarbons.

The latter chemical propellants are facing a possible phase-out because they are thought to endanger the atmosphere.

Inventor Robert H. Abplanalp, chairman and president of Precision Valve Corp. here, said the new propellant is a type of gas that has existed in the atmosphere since the advent of man.

He said it can be mixed in a water base, making the spray non-flammable. It can also be used to develop economical water-based products that until now could not be sprayed efficiently from pressurized containers, Abplanalp added.

The new system is named AQUASOL.

Sports Briefs

By United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI) — The New York Knicks Monday announced the signing of their two 1977 second-round college draft choices, Glen Gondrezick of Nevada-Las Vegas and Toby Knight of Notre Dame.
Gondrezick, the 26th player chosen in the draft, is a 6-foot-6, 218-pounder from Boulder, Colo., who was a swingman in college.
Knight, the 32nd player selected, is 6-foot-9, 210-pounder from Shoreham, N.Y., who is best remembered for his gamewinning shot against Cincinnati in the 1976 NCAA Tournament.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Pittsburgh Pirates' third baseman Phil Garner was selected Monday as the National League Player of the Week.
Garner, 26, drove in 10 runs with 13 hits in a four-game weekend sweep of the Philadelphia Phillies, which lifted the third-place Pirates to within 6½ games of first-place Chicago in the Eastern Division.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Boston's Jim Rice narrowly edged two other players Monday to win selection as the American League Player of the Week.
Rice hit a robust .394, knocked in seven runs and had three game-winning hits for the honor.

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. (UPI) — The New York Jets announced Monday they have signed free agent Anthony Knight, a 5-10, 180-pound cornerback from Norfolk State.

Coach Walt Michaels will begin two-a-day training sessions Friday with a 93-man squad of rookies and veterans.

Jets' rookies and free agents will scrimmage against a similar squad of New York Giants players at Pace University, Pleasantville, N.Y., July 20.

NEW YORK (UPI) — First baseman Steve Garvey of the Los Angeles Dodgers became the only player ever to receive 4 million votes in All-Star balloting and was elected to the National League starting team Monday with 4,277,735 votes.

Four members of the Cincinnati Reds join Garvey in the starting lineup: second baseman Joe Morgan, shortstop Dave Concepcion, catcher Johnny Bench and outfielder George Foster.

Thurmond Munson:

All He Wants To Do Is Keep Playing

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Editor
NEW YORK (UPI) — Vince Lombardi had his own way of assessing any player. Size and ability were important, naturally, but what he looked for first was desire, a kid who would keep playing with what Lombardi called "his little hurts."
The late Green Bay coach would have loved a guy like Thurman Munson, even though he's a baseball player, not a football player. Last year, the rugged Yankees' catcher was MVP; this year he's in the running for MBP — the most banged up player maybe in both leagues — and still all he wants to do is keep playing.
For the better part of a week now, Munson has been playing with seven stitches in his right pinky. Before Sunday's ball game with the Orioles, he was bloodied up when struck above his left eye by one of the iron poles that makes up the batting cage.

He shook it off and caught anyway. Then he was hit flush in the mask by two foul balls, one of which made his head spin and throb. Finally, when his head ached so much that he was getting too nauseous to bend up and down anymore, he left the game in the sixth inning.
Years from now, when he's all finished playing and retired on a farm maybe some place in Ohio, Thurman Munson would like to have them remember him for only one thing.
"All I would like people to say about me is that I did everything I could to win every ball game," says the Yankees' hard-driving receiver and captain.
"I'd like them to say I was a good clutch hitter and that I busted my butt to play."

Thurman Munson doesn't have to wait until he's all through for everyone to say that. They say it already now. And those who have kept track of some of the inner conflict among the Yankees since the season started also say that if there is any one player who can get all of them to pull together, it's Thurman Munson.
That was one of the reasons Billy Martin had for making Munson captain last year.
When Reggie Jackson was signed for $3 million this past winter, there were many who felt his personality was such that he would automatically become the leader of the club. It hasn't worked out that way, though. Munson refused to play a subordinate role, to Jackson or anyone else, and he's still the player all the rest look to whenever any crisis develops or the heat gets a little too hot in the kitchen.

Munson realizes the general attitude among the Yankee players isn't what it was 15 or 20 years ago, or what either owner George Steinbrenner or Martin would like it to be, and it bothers him as much as it does them.
When you ask him whether he feels the team can achieve that all-important degree of togetherness before the season is over, he thinks about the question awhile before answering it.
"I think we'll come together as one on the field, but as personalities, never," he says.
If there is any personality conflict between him and Jackson, it is not apparent in their every day relationship. Earlier this year, Jackson said the Yanks would have to look to him for their leadership, not to Munson, and he may still feel that way, but he doesn't go around saying it.

Outwardly, there is no visible breach between Munson and Jackson. They talk to each other and are friendly now in contrast to their relationship a month or so ago when they studiously ignored one another.
Without singling out anybody on the club, Munson says "we're gonna have to improve our attitude. For as much talent as we have, it's a shame we haven't done a whole lot better."
Thurman Munson comes from the old school. Simply by hard work, he made himself into one of the best catchers there is in baseball today.
"My father was a truck driver for 35 years and he told me if I ever was gonna do anything, I should do it right," he says. "In Canton, Ohio, where we lived, he'd always throw me ground balls in the street. Once in awhile, a ball would hit me in the mouth, but he'd keep on throwing 'em at me. 'You're all right,' he'd say to me. And I'd go after the next ball."
He's a full grown adult now and still goes after every ball. All he wants to do is keep playing.

Foreman Wants Trade

Unhappy With Minnesota Over Present, Past Salaries

MIAMI (UPI) — All-pro running back Chuck Foreman — unhappy with his $85,000-a-year salary under a contract with two years to run — says he won't be reporting as scheduled July 26 to the Minnesota Vikings' training camp.
"The day I'm supposed to report is the day I disappear," Foreman said at his Miami home Monday.

"I'll be leaving the city, getting off by myself. I might get in my car and just go west. I don't know. All I know is I'll be driving somewhere. Nobody will know where I am. I'll call my representative (attorney Tom Reich of Pittsburgh) but even he won't know where I'm calling from," said Foreman.

He said he decided before Vikings' fourth game last season he didn't want to spend another season in a Minnesota uniform.
"I know a lot of teams have inquired about me. And I'm sure if somebody came up with the right deal, they'd trade me," Foreman said.
But if Minnesota fails to trade him, Foreman said he is prepared to sit out the season or retire from pro football.
"I can do other things," he said, but declined to be specific. "I don't want the Vikings to know anything about my personal life," he explained.
"I don't have any desire to have all the money in the world," the 26-year-old former University of Miami star said. "I've lived without a lot of money for most of my life and I can do it again.
"Believe me, it won't hurt me to work eight hours a day, either. I can be very comfortable doing that," Foreman said.

Foreman said "I'm not asking for the world — nothing ridiculous."
"If it means that much to them to give me a raise, well, to hell with it. I'm not getting on my knees to beg anybody," he said.
Foreman pointed out that in his four years at Minnesota, the Vikings have been in the playoffs every year. The season before he joined the team in 1973, it had a 7-7 record. "It's all there in black and white what I've done. I've proven myself time and time again," he said.
"My second year I was making $30,000 and we had some young linebackers making $50,000. It tore me up inside the way they treated me, but I didn't show it on the field. I still did the job for them," he said.

Plano Locators Tie In Debut

Season play began last week in the Men's Open Division of the North Texas State Soccer Association and the Plano Locators recorded a 3-3 tie against Farmers Branch United.
Center striker Cliff Lazarine scored Plano's first goal unassisted only 15 minutes deep in the game. Billy Greiser scored the second goal from his left wing position.
Greiser attempted a cross to Lazarine which was deflected off a Farmers Branch player's chest into the net for the goal.

Plano's third goal was scored on a cross from Greiser to center back Tom Marischen.
Coach Greiser credited Plano defenders Fred Wise and Jack Vreeland with good performances as fullbacks and James Mongaras in the midfield with setting up the scoring opportunities.
Plano played the majority of the game short one player following a leg injury to defenseman Mike Newman.
